

Basic Pillars of Good Writing

RESEARCH ACTION GROUP (RAG)-AMMA ERF

In this Module

We will

Look at some pillars of
Good Writing

Try to Internalize these

Start work to write more effectively

Pillars of Good Writing

Writing is a
Skill

You can learn a skill

Practice perfects a skill

Instruction helps to practice

Good Writing

Good Writing Transfers
Clear Thinking into Words

Good Writing

Clear Thinking needs a good understanding of the topic

Good Writing

You can talk clearly when you think clearly

Good Writing

You can write clearly when you can talk your thoughts clearly

Good Writing

Talk your thoughts to your peers

Good Writing

Talk your thoughts to those who are not well versed
with your subject

Good Writing

What questions are asked?
Can you answer them
clearly?

Good Writing

Talk your thoughts to the manuscript!

Good Writing

Medical Writing has to translate to action

Good Writing

The action is almost always a decision

Good Writing

You have to transfer information to enable a decision

Good Writing

Who are your readers?

Target Awareness

Good Writing

What do they already know about the topic?

Target Awareness

Good Writing

What decisions may they make?

Target Awareness

Good Writing

What do they want to know?

Target Awareness

Good Writing

What do you want to tell them?

Target Awareness

Good Writing

Tools of writing are important to express
clearly

Good Writing

Grammar, Punctuation, Spelling are basic tools of writing

Good Writing

Work on the tools of writing

Don't rely on others to do it for you!

Good Writing

Take Time to Write

Good Writing

Good things come with time.

Give time for your writing.

Good Writing

Short Bursts rather than Long Stretches allow you to reflect!

Good Writing

Write to Express, not to impress Simple Clear Language is better than long winded sentences!

Good Writing

Short simple sentences
come from a deeper understanding of the topic

Good Writing

Unnecessary words and sentences indicate ignorance of the topic

Good Writing

Make the effort to write well
You have to make the effort!
